A match between Barre and Montpelier will also be played tomorrow afternoon on the local links, it being the last of the season between the two.

Much homely humor is found in Wm. E. Gray's beautiful new production, "The Volunteer Organist." Its characters being drawn from a locality in Vermont that seems to be quite apart from the rest of the world are many of them, rare studies. The eccentricities of the rural Vermonters are, while clearly drawn, not one whit exaggerated, like the fishman, the humor of the Vermonters is spontaneous and it bubbles out in unexpected places at unlooked for times so that one is actually at a loss as to whether cause one to laugh with glee or to let one's sympathy go out to some of the other characters. Barre people will have an opportunity of witnessing the piece at the opera house next Tuesday evening.

Prepare the Windows and Doors for the Cold Weather

Don't leave any chance for "Old Boreas" to work his way into your home this winter. See that the doors shut tightly, and that there are no crevices between the windows and sashes. A little pneumatic device that shuts the door quickly but softly costs but little and wards off the cold. Weather strips are also cheap, and they keep the cold out and the heat in.

These and other needs can be supplied here for very small cost.
